PROTECTIVE ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that between Plaintiff Craig Cunningham and all Defendants that:

WHEREAS, documents and information have been and may be sought, produced or exhibited by and among the parties to this action relating to trade secrets, confidential research, development, technology or other proprietary information belonging to the Defendants. Additionally, this agreement covers any information without limitation deemed confidential by the Plaintiff to include all deposition testimony and discovery responses.

THEREFORE, this order shall govern the use, handling and disclosure of all documents, testimony, or information produced or given in this action, which are designated to be subject to this order in accordance with the terms hereof.

1. Any party or nonparty producing or filing documents or other materials in this action may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to this order by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the document for which confidential treatment is designated confidential.

2. To the extent any motions, briefs, pleadings, deposition transcripts, or other papers to be filed with the Court incorporate documents or information subject to this order, the party filing such papers shall designate such materials or portions thereof as "Confidential" (Confidential) or "Confidential - Attorneys' Eyes Only" (CAEO) and shall file them with the Clerk under seal; provided, however, that a copy of such filing having the confidential information deleted therefrom may be made part of the public record.

3. All documents, transcripts, or other materials subject to this Order, and all information derived therefrom (including, but not limited to, all testimony, deposition, or otherwise, that refers, reflects, or otherwise discussed any information designated Confidential hereunder) shall not be used, directly or indirectly, by any party for any purpose whatsoever, other than solely for the preparation and trial of this action in accordance with the provisions of this order.

4. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a document or portions of a document as Confidential, or pursuant to prior order after notice, any document, transcript or pleading given Confidential treatment under this order, and any information contained in, or derived from any such materials (including but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated Confidential hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in accordance with this order and may not be disclosed to any person other than (a) the Court and its officers; (b) parties to this litigation; (c) counsel for the parties, whether retained counsel or in-house counsel and employees of counsel assigned to assist such counsel in the preparation of this litigation (d) fact witnesses subject to a proffer to the Court or a stipulation of the parties that such witnesses need to know such information; (e) present or former employees of the producing party in connection with their depositions in this action (provided that no former employees shall be shown documents prepared after the date of his or her departure); (f) experts specifically retained as consultants or expert witnesses in connection with this litigation; and (g) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation.

5. Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a document or portions of a document as CAEO or pursuant to prior order after notice, any document, transcript or pleading given CAEO treatment under this order, and any information contained in, or derived from any such materials (including, but not limited to, all deposition testimony that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated confidential hereunder) may not be disclosed other than in accordance with this order and may not be disclosed to any person other than: (a) the receiving party's outside counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of said counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the Declaration of Compliance that is attached hereto as Exhibit A (Declaration of Compliance); (b) experts specifically retained as consultants or expert witnesses in connection with this litigation who have signed the Declaration of Compliance; (c) the Court and its personnel; (d) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the Declaration of Compliance; (e) the author of the document or the original source of the information; and (f) Plaintiff Craig Cunningham.

6. Documents produced pursuant to this order shall not be made available to any person designated in Subparagraph 5(f) or 6(b) unless he or she shall have first read this order, agreed to be bound by its terms, and signed the attached Declaration of Compliance.

7. All persons receiving any or all documents produced pursuant to this order shall be advised of their confidential nature. All persons to whom confidential information and/or documents are disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to any person except as provided herein, and are further enjoined from using same except in the preparation for and trial of the above-captioned action between the named parties thereto. No person receiving or reviewing such confidential documents, information or transcript shall disseminate or disclose them to any person other than those described above in Paragraphs 6 and 7 and for the purposes specified, and in no event shall such person make any other use of such document or transcript.

8. Nothing in this order shall prevent a party from using at trial any information or materials designated CAEO.

9. This order is entered to facilitate discovery and the production of relevant evidence in this action. Neither the entry of this order, nor the designation of any information, document, or the like as Confidential or CAEO, nor the failure to make such designation, shall constitute evidence with respect to any issue in this action.

10. Within 90 days after the final termination of this litigation, all documents, transcripts, or other materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this order shall be returned to the individual or entity having produced or furnished same.

11. In the event that any party to this litigation disagrees at any point in these proceedings with any designation made under this Protective Order, the parties shall first try to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the party objecting to the designation may seek appropriate relief from this Court. During the pendency of any challenge to the designation of a document or information, the designated document or information shall continue to be treated as Confidential or CAEO subject to the provisions of this Protective Order.

12. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to its own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of documents, transcripts and materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this order.

13. The Court retains the right to allow disclosure of any subject covered by this stipulation or to modify this stipulation at any time in the interest of justice.

It is so ORDERED.
